Saints of the Week

• Dec 12th St. Finnian, Bishop, settled in Clonard, Co. Meath, around 520, where he established a famous school. His pupils, among whom were Canice, Columba and Brendan, were the initiators of a great monastic

• expansion in Ireland.

Dec. 13th St. Lucy, Virgin and martyr was a wealthy

Sicilian who refused marriage because of her desire to be consecrated to Christ alone, gave her wealth to the poor and was accused by a suitor to the persecuting authority. Lucy was killed by a sword. She is invoked for eye trouble

Dec. 14th St. John of the Cross,

A Carmelite who suffered much in his work of spreading the reform of the Carmelites, he was a man of prayer, outstanding poet and spiritual writer. Declared Doctor of the Church

Dec. 18th, St Flannan, Patron of Killaloe Bishop lived in the seventh century and was the son of a king of Thomond. He entered Molua's monastery at Killaloe and seems to have become an abbot there. He is remembered as a great preacher

What does the 3rd Sunday of Advent mean?

Historically the pink or rose candle is called the Gaudete candle, from the Latin word meaning "rejoice." The third Sunday of Advent is also known by some Christians as Gaudete Sunday. ... It is an important reminder in the Advent season of preparation, of the joy that is ours in knowing the power of love in our lives
