Saints of the Week

6th Dec. St Nicholas. Patron of Galway City, He was a 4th Cen. Bishop of Myra. Little is known about his life but the legends of his great acts of kindness grew. Throughout East and West hundreds of churches were dedicated to him. With the sack of Myra by the Muslims the body was transferred to Bari, Italy, this brought his cult to the West. The fame of his cult reached Galway through the port. It became very popular and in the 14th Cen. The Collegiate Church was dedicated to him. The Parish Church of St Nicholas covered the four city parishes until St Joseph's was opened in 1882, and St Patrick's on the other side of the Corrib. The new Cathedral was dedicated to him in the 1960's.

7th Dec St Ambrose Bishop and Doctor of the Church. He was governor of Milan and in 374 the laity insisted that he become Bishop, though he was still not baptised. He was baptised and ordained in the following week. He defended orthodoxy with his preaching skills. Patron of Milan

Dec. 11th St. Damasus I, Pope, b.c. 304, died 11th Dec. 384, pope 366-384. He commissioned St. Jerome to prepare the Vulgate version of the Bible.

The theme of the second Sunday of Advent is dedicated to love. Love permeates every aspect of the Christmas story: God so loved the world that he send his Only Begotten Son, and Jehovah so loved us that he deigned to become the Babe of Bethlehem — and later, as the man Jesus, to suffer, die, and rise again for us.
