Saints of the Week

30th January St. Aidan Born around 550, probably in Co. Cavan. Aidan studied under David in Wales. On his return he founded a monastery at Ferns. He became bishop there and was renowned for his generosity and kindness. He died in 626 and his Lives testify to his popularity both in Cavan and in Ferns.

31st January St. John Bosco 1815—1888 Born in Piedmont, he founded the Salesians to educate boys for life. He also became involved in publishing catechetical material for youth. He is a patron saint of youth and of Catholic publishers

St. Brigid

ST BRIDGET 1ST FEB

St. Ansgar 3rd Feb. Brought the gospel to Denmark. Apostle of Scandinavia. Patron of Denmark.

St. Blaise d. 315 3rd Feb.

Bishop of Sebastea, martyred in Armenia. Patron of sore throats and sick cattle.

Everything that St. Brigid would ask of God was granted her at once. For this was her desire: to satisfy the poor, to expel every hardship, to spare every miserable man. So strong was the respect and reverence for this holy lady that she became the patroness of parishes, towns, and counties, not only in Ireland, but all across Europe. During the age of Chivalry, she was so revered as a model for women of every age, that gentlemen, knights, and nobles began the custom of calling their sweethearts, their Brides----- a custom that has come down to this very day Not only was St. Brigid a patroness of students, but she also founded a school of art, including metal work and illumination . St. Brigid died leaving a cathedral city and school that became famous all over Europe.

St. Brigid

Saint Brigid's Cross is placed on doorways to ward off evil, fire, and hunger from homes.
