Saints of the Week

21st March St. Enda Is considered to be one of the three great late vocations of Ireland. His sister Faenche, a nun, set his thoughts on a religious vacation. On Faenche's urging he went to Aran. Where he established a monastery which became one of the most important in Ireland He died probably in 520 and is considered as one of the early models of ascetic

monasticism in Ireland

23rd March St Turibus of Mongrovejo

Layman. Lawyer. Professor of law at Salamanca Spain. He was appointed to the post of Archbishop of Lima, Peru by King Philip II. Founded the first seminary in the Western hemisphere. Fought for the rights of the natives against the Spanish masters and combated the abuses of the conquerors. Organized councils and synods for the reform of the church in the New World

24th March St. Macartan Patron Saint of the Diocese of Clogher Is recognised as the first Bishop of Clogher. A disciple of St. Patrick, he founded his monastery at what had been a pagan sanctuary. The Diocese contains all of Monaghan, most of Fermanagh and part of Tyrone.

March 25 The Annunciation. The white lily in the angel's hand is symbolic of Mary's purity. The Annunciation, also referred to as the Annunciation to the Blessed Virgin Mary or Annunciation of the Lord, is the Christian celebration of the announcement by the angel

Gabriel to the Virgin Mary that she would conceive and become the mother of Jesus, the Son of God, marking his Incarnation. Gabriel told Mary to name her son Jesus, meaning "Saviour". It is one of the twelve Great Feasts of the church year
