Saints of the Week

5th March St. Kieran. Patron Saint of the Diocese of Ossory. Kieran of Saigir was born in Cape Clear, County Cork. He is numbered among the saints of Ireland before St Patrick. He received the faith from missionaries or from French Traders. He went to the Continent, where he was baptised and later ordained priest and bishop. He returned to his father's territory, Ossory, and seems to have lived as a hermit. The diocese is made up of most of Co Kilkenny, part of Laois and one parish in Offaly.

7th Sts. Perpetua & Felicity Martyred in Carthage AD

203. March 8th. St. Senan. was born near Kilrush, County Clare. His vocation seems to have resulted from an experience of danger from the sea. His early studies were mainly made at the monastery of Kilnabeg. His principal monastic foundation was on Scattery Island, Kilrush, in the Shannon Estuary. He was anamchara to Ciaran of Clonmacnois and Brendan, and died in 544.

March 8th St. John of God 1495–1550

He is the patron saint of nurses, the sick, heart patients, printers and booksellers.

March 9th Francis of Rome. Married at a young age she had three children. Her husband died after 40 years of marriage and she joined a convent of Benedictine Nuns. She spent her wealth on the poor and needy of the city of Rome. She founded a home for abandoned children. She died in 1440

Trócaire works with local and church partners to support communities in over 20 developing countries with a focus on food and resource rights, women's empowerment and humanitarian response. Pls take a box available in church porch

Fasting and Feasting Prayer

Fast from judging others; feast on Christ within in them.

Fast from emphasis on difference; feast on our bonds.

Fast from fear of illness; feast on the healing power of God.

Fast from apparent darkness; feast on God's light.

Fast from words that cut down; feast on speech that uplifts.

Fast from gossip; feast on affirmations.

Fast from discontent; feast on gratitude.

Fast from pessimism; Feast on hope.

Fast from anger; feast on patience.

Fast from negatives; feast on encouragement.

Fast from resentment; feast on forgiveness.

Fast from suspicion; feast on truth.

Fast from self-centeredness; feast on compassion.

Fast from complaining; feast on appreciation.

Fast from giving up; feast on enthusiasm.

Fast from the shadows of sorrow; feast on trust in God.

Fast from focusing on problems; feast on unceasing prayer.

Fast from anxiety; feast on faith.

This fasting and feasting prayer can be found in many variations. It suggests something to fast from and then an alternative to feast upon. We don't give something up to make ourselves suffer. We give things up for Lent to make room for something better.
