Advent Sunday, also known as First Sunday in Advent, is the first day of the Advent season in which Christians prepare for the celebration that commemorates the birth of Jesus Christ, Christmas. It is always on the fourth Sunday before Christmas Day

Symbols. Purple is historically the main colour used for Advent because it reflects penitence, fasting, and the colour of royalty to welcome the Advent of the king (Jesus Christ).

Saints of the week

Nov 30th St Andrew, Patron of Scotland and Russia. He was disciple of St John the Baptist when he was called by Christ. He brought his brother, Peter, to Jesus. He is mentioned in the gospels several times, especially at the feeding of the 5,000. He was declared by Robert De Bruce as patron of Scotland after the battle of Bannockburn and the X Cross was chosen as the flag. The association with Scotland goes back to the 4th Cen., when the relics of Andrew were brought to Fife and a church was founded there. The head of the saint was taken from the East by the crusaders and given to Pope Pius II in 1461. The relic was returned by Pope Paul IV.

3rd Dec. St Francis Xavier. Born in Navarra France. At university in Paris he met Ignatius of Loyola, with whom he founded the Jesuits. Francis became a great missionary priest in India, Ceylon, Japan and died on his way to China. He went among the poor as a poor man himself, sleeping on the ground in a hut and eating rice and water. Francis is patron of Missionaries
