Saints of the Week

Rita of Cascia, 1386–1457 22nd May

Rita was born in Italy. She was interested in religious life, but at the age of 12, her parents betrothed her to an ill-tempered man. She married him and put up with his abuse for 18 years.

After his death and the loss of her twin sons, she entered a monastery and lived there for 40 years. Despite all her troubles, Rita never lost faith in God. As a woman who suffered abuse, she is the patron saint of abuse victims

St. Bede, 673–735 25th May Monk of Jarrow, historian and biblical commentator. Patron of scholars.

St. Gregory VII, 1028–1085 25th May

St. Mary Magdalene de'Pazzi 1566–1607, 25th May A Carmelite in Florence, offered her life for the spiritual renewal of the Church.

St. Philip Neri 26th May Was born in

Florence in 1515, but spent most of his life in Rome where he founded the Congregation of the Oratory to foster good preaching and to promote holiness of priestly life.
