Thought of the day for day-to-day affirmations

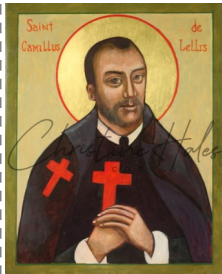

- Hard work keeps the wrinkles out of the mind and spirit. – ...
- If opportunity doesn't knock, build a door. – ...
- Success is the sum of small efforts repeated day in and day out. – ...
- Take your victories, whatever they may be, cherish them, use them, but don't settle for them. –

Saints of the Week

St Maelruain July 7th Bishop and Abbot founded the monastery at Tallagh Co Dublin in 774 which introduced reforms to the Irish Monastic system
St. Kilian July 8th Was probably born in the parish of Mullagh in the diocese of Kilmore. With eleven companions he left Ireland and became known as the apostle of Thuringia and Eastern Franconia. With two others he was put to death c. 688. There is a very strong devotion to him in Wurtzburg, where his remains lie, and also throughout the Bavarian countryside.

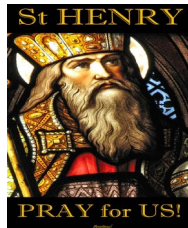

St. Benedict, 480 –550 July 11th
 From Nursia in Central Italy, is seen from his Rule to be a man of peace and moderation. That Rule, distinguished by its wisdom and balance, and those who lived by it, did much to shape the Europe of today. Pope Paul VI nominated St. Benedict as Patron of Europe in 1964, with the rank of Feast.

St. Henry 973–1024 July 13th
 Duke of Bavaria and later Emperor, a just ruler, humble man of prayer and reformer of the Church.

St. Camillus de Lellis 1550–1614 14th July

He was rough-tempered and a gambler in his early life as a soldier. Was converted at the age of 25. Guided by St. Philip Neri he became a priest and worked for the sick with two companions. His servants of the Sick prospered and founded hospitals especially where others would not go. Patron of nurses, hospitals and the sick.

"A woman is like a tea bag—you can't tell how strong she is until you put her in hot water."

– Eleanor Roosevelt

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;

*you have revealed to little ones
 the mysteries of the Kingdom.*

Matthew 11:25–30 begins with Jesus' prayer of thanks to His Father for hiding the truth from those thought to be wise by the world's standards.

Instead, the gospel has been revealed to those the unbelieving world dismisses as virtual children.

Jesus declares that He and the Father know each other completely and that .

He can reveal the Father to anyone He chooses. He offers rest for the souls of all who are weighed down and weary if they will take on His yoke, saying that His burden is easy and light
