Saints of the week

St. Monica, 332-387 August 27th Converted her pagan husband, Patricius, to the faith, and by her prayers and tears brought her son, St. Augustine, to Christianity and a moral life. Patron saint of Mothers.

St. Augustine, 354-430 August 28th Bishop of Hippo, where he lived with a community until his death. His theological influence has been most significant in the Church especially on the understanding of God's grace. Patron of theologians.

The Beheading of John the Baptist August 29th

St. Fiacre. August 30th Was an Irishman who went abroad to a hermitage near Breuil, where he remained until his death c. 670. devotion to the saint was more popular in France then in Ireland. He was renowned for his work in horticulture at this hermitage, and is patron saint of gardeners

St. Aidan of Lindisfarne August 31st Was of Irish descent and was a monk of Iona. When Oswald, the exiled king of Northumbria who had fled for refuge to Iona returned to his throne in 634, he invited

Aidan to come to reconvert his people. Aidan made his headquarters at Lindisfarne. With the aid of the king as interpreter he was very successful in his mission. He died in 651.

Gregory the Great, 540 -604 September 3rd

A Roman noble who was Prefect of the City before becoming a monk. As Pope he established a pattern for the papacy in years to come. He sent missions to Lombardy, Sardinia and England. Patron of musicians

St. Dengus MacNissi September 4th Took his name from his mother Ness. It is claimed that Patrick baptised him and taught him the psalms. He chose the district of Connor for his hermitage, but later became bishop of his clan. He died early in the sixth century.

Congratulations on your excellent exam results. Keep the same courage and confidence to face the challenges of life. May God bless you with success and abundant happiness.
