Let us pray to God who has made us his sons and daughters in Jesus, his beloved Son (PAUSE) Lord our God, at the transfiguration of Jesus you gave eyes of faith to the apostles to see beyond appearances and to recognize Jesus as your beloved Son.
Strengthen our faith too in the person and message of your Son

Saints of the week

The Dedication of the Basilica of St Mary Major: 5th August, it was the first Church in the west named after the Mother of God

The Transfiguration of the Lord 6th August

Pope St. Sixtus II August 7th

Pope St. Sixtus and his four deacon companions were put to death in 258

St. Cajetan, 1480–1547 August 7th

Founded the Theatines to renew sacramental life in the Church

St. Dominic, 1170–1221 August 8th

A Spaniard who founded the Order of Preachers to counteract the Albigensian heresy. The Dominican Order were first established in Atherny in 1241 and in Galway 1488 they have had a unbroken link with the city every since and through very difficult times.

Edith Stein, St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, 1891–1942 August 9th

Born in Breslau, Germany, murdered in the Nazi death camp of Auschwitz, Poland, Edith Stein dedicated her life to a pursuit of truth leading from her roots in Judaism, via adolescent agnosticism, to the study of philosophy, to Catholicism and ultimately to life as a Carmelite.

Europe not only has male patron saints, but also now three holy women: Edith Stein, Catherine of Sienna, and Bridget of Sweden. These holy women are examples and intercessors along with Saint Benedict, Saint Cyril, and Saint Methodius.

St Nathy Patron of the Diocese of Achrohy. The diocese covers Eastern part of Mayo and West Sligo.

St Felim Patron of the Diocese of Kilmore. The Diocese covers most of Cavan, northern Leitrim and southern Fermanagh.

St. Lawrence, d. 258 August 10th

Is seen as the cheerful giver since he was one of the seven deacons of the Roman Church in charge of the material needs of the faithful. Gifted with a sense of humour, he met his death cheerfully on a gridiron. Patron saint of the poor and cooks.

St Clare August 11th

Born in Assisi 1193. She followed St Francis into poverty and founded the Poor Clares when Francis finished his church in Assisi he gave a house to Clare to start a convent. The convents were harsh and the rule of poverty was strict. The convents spread to the rest of Europe. She died 1253 and was canonized by Pope Alexander IV 1255.

Thank You for your support

One day, with the Lord, we shall no longer suffer anymore, and everything will be all good and right again just as the Lord has always intended for us. In the meantime, let us all be exemplary, inspirational and great role models of our Christian faith and living in all of our words, actions and deeds, in our every interactions and efforts, good works and endeavours for the greater glory of God. May the Lord Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Saviour, Who has been Transfigured in glory at Mount Tabor, continue to shine His light upon us and help us in our journey and dedication towards Him, now and always, that we too may be the shining beacons of His light and truth, in every occasions and opportunities. Amen

Great God of dazzling beauty and overshadowing majesty, in Jesus Christ, your beloved Son, we glimpse the image of your glory. Teach us to listen to him so that we may hear your voice and follow your holy way; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.
