Saints of the week

St. Ciaran. 512-545 9th September

Son of a travelling carpenter of Connaught, he studied under Finnian of Clonard, went as a monk to Enda on the Aran Islands where he was ordained priest. He finally settled at Clonmacnoise where he founded a monastery which became one of the most important centres of learning in Ireland.

St Peter Claver 9th September.

Went to South America ordained in 1615 and preached to the Slaves and worked with. The slave trade thrived in South America despite condemnation for Pope Paul III and Pius IV. Peter died from a disease that he caught while doing his pastoral work. He was Canonized by Pope Leo XIII 1888.

St Ailbe Died 528AD 12th September Founded a monastery in Emly, went to Rome and was ordained a bishop and is the patron saint of the Diocese of Cashel and Emly. It covers east Limerick and Mid Tipperary.

St. John Chrysostom, 347-407 13th September One of the four great Greek Doctors, and "Golden-mouthed" preacher, was Archbishop of Constantinople. He incurred much opposition and died in exile. Patron saint of preachers.

The Triumph of the Cross 14th September

The True Cross was found by St Helena 14th Sept 320.

Our Lady of Sorrows 15th September The title "Our Lady of Sorrows" focuses on Mary's intense suffering during the passion and death of Christ. "The Seven Dolors," the title by which it was celebrated in the 17th century, referred to the seven swords that pierced the Heart of Mary.
