Synod Assembly October 2023 Please remember in your prayers Pope Francis and those who are gathering in Rome during the month of October for the Universal Synod. Pray that the Holy Spirit will guide them in their deliberations as they try to listen to discern what God is asking of his People – the Church today. Prayer for the Synod During the Month of October Loving Father, Lord of all ages. God of all peoples. Through your Son, Jesus Christ, you have called us by name. You have gathered us into the family of the Church. Send forth your Holy Spirit upon us. Inspire Pope Francis and all those who are assembled in Rome at this time. Open their hearts to your voice. Help them to recognise how best to respond to your call. Give us a new heart and a new spirit. Strengthen our faith. Renew your Church. Inspire us to work for a world where love abounds, justice reigns, and peace prevails. With Mother Mary by our side. All this we ask of you. Amen. I thank you for your cooperation

Saints of the week

9th October Sts. Denis, Rusticus and

Eleutherius They were beheaded and thrown into the Seine in 258 and later buried at Montmartre. Denis, the first Bishop of Paris, is one of the patrons of France.

9th October Bl John Henry Newman

John Henry Newman, the 19th century's most important English-speaking Roman Catholic theologian, spent the first half of his life as an Anglican and the second half as a Roman Catholic. He was a priest, popular preacher, writer and eminent theologian in both Churches. Born in London, England, he studied at Oxford's Trinity College, was a tutor at Oriel College and for 17 years was vicar of the university church, St. Mary the Virgin. He eventually published eight volumes of Parochial and Plain Sermons as well as two novels. His poem, "Dream of Gerontius," was set to music by Sir Edward Elgar. After 1833, Newman was a prominent member of the Oxford Movement, which emphasized the Church's debt to the Church Fathers and challenged any tendency to consider truth as completely subjective. Historical research made Newman suspect that the Roman Catholic Church was in closest continuity with the Church that Jesus established. In 1845, he was received into full communion as a Catholic. Two years later he was ordained a Catholic priest in Rome and joined the Congregation of the Oratory, founded three centuries earlier by St. Philip Neri. Returning to England, Newman founded Oratory houses in Birmingham and London and for seven years served as rector of the Catholic University of Ireland. Pope Benedict XVI beatified Newman on September 19, 2010, at Crofton Park (near Birmingham). The pope noted Newman's emphasis on the vital place of revealed religion in civilized society but also praised his pastoral zeal for the sick, the poor, the bereaved and those in prison.

9th October St. John Leonardi, 1541-1609

Supported the reforms of Trent, published a catechism, helped to found the Propagation of the Faith in Rome.

11th October St. Canice

Was born in C. Derry around 527 and died in 603. Though his people were poor he studied at Clonard under Finnian and at Glasnevin under Mobhi. A deep friendship developed between himself and Colum Cille, with whom he worked for a time in Scotland, where he set up a number of churches.

13th Edward the Confessor Edward the Confessor was the son of King Ethelred III and his Norman wife, Emma. King Canute invaded England and took the throne. Edward remained in Normandy, was brought up a Norman, and in 1042, on the death of Canute he was acclaimed king of England. His reign was a peaceful one characterized by his good rule and remission of heavy taxes and he was good to his people. The struggle between Saxon and Norman was to be the predominant issue of Edwards reign. During the crises Edward became more interested in religious affairs and built St. Peter's Abbey at Westminster, the site of the present Abbey, where he is buried. His piety gained him the surname "the Confessor". He died in London on January 5, and he was canonized in 1161 by Pope Alexander III.
