A Mothers Day Prayer

Thank you Lord for all Mothers On this day.
let us think of them whether they are with us or gone the their heavenly reward.

We think of their kindness their compassion their care for us and all their unconditional love. We pray that you will watch over them and support them in the joys and struggles of their daily lives. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Saints of the week

. St. Aengus, Tuesday 11th March Died 830, was a monk in Clonenagh, Co. Laois, who came to the monastery of Tallaght. He composed two Martyrologies, thus showing his devotion to both foreign and native saints. He returned to Clonenagh, where he became both abbot and bishop.

St. Peter Damian 1007—72 AD

13th March

Born at Ravenna, lost both his parents in childhood. Became a monk in 1035 when he joined the Camaldolese Benedictine Monastery. Peter became abbot in 1043. In 1057 he was appointed bishop of Ostia. He took a prominent part in the Gregorian Reform.

- "Máire Ní Mheibhric, Human Right Monitor with the Ecumenical Accompaniment Programme, will speak on her recent work in the West Bank and Israel, on Wed. March 13th at 7.30pm in the Croi Nua Spirituality Centre, Taylors Hill. Galway". Email: croinuacentre@gmail.com; ph. 085-7829855. Admission is free"

- Community alert meeting will be held in the Cooley hall Peterswell on 11th March at 8pm. Garda in attendance. All are welcome.

- "Let us all say: enough ... Stop the War! In saying this, we join with many in our parishes, together with all people of goodwill, in demanding an immediate end to the daily horror of killing, wounding and destruction of property and infrastructure there." Mass for Lent

Kilchreest-Tuesday

Castledaly-Friday

Peterswell

Monday and Thursday

at 7pm

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is traditionally called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that means "rejoice." Today's Gospel describes the reason for our joy:

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life." Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but so that the world might be saved through him.
