Pentecost

After Jesus had ascended to heaven from Mt. Olivet, the apostles and disciples returned to the Holy City.

They remained together in the Upper Room or Cenacle, the place where Jesus had appeared to them and which may well be called the first Christian church.. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a violent wind coming, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them parted tongues as of fire, which settled upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in foreign tongues, even as the Holy Spirit prompted them to speak.

Pentecost ranks among the great feasts of Christianity. It commemorates not only the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and Disciples, but also the fruits and effects of that event: the completion of the work of redemption, the fullness of grace for the Church and its children, and the gift of faith for all nations

To all who made their First Holy Communion Yesterday

Congratulations and may God bless you always. Congratulations on your First Communion! May this special day fill your heart with gratitude for the love and sacrifice of Jesus. May your First Holy Communion be a time of deep gratitude and appreciation for the presence of Jesus in your life.

Saints of the Week

St. Bernardine of Siena, 1380–1444 20th May

Born near Siena, he became a Franciscan and travelled through Italy, preaching with great success. He propagated devotion to the Holy Name and to St. Joseph.

Patron saint of advertisers, communications and public relations personnel.

St. Christobal Magallanes, priest and companions

21st May Christobal Magallanes was born to a farming family in 1869 in Mexico and worked as a shepherd in his youth. He entered the seminary at 19. He became parish priest at Totatiche, Mexico, where he helped found schools, a newspaper, catechism centres for children and adults, carpentry shops, and an electric power plant to power the mills. He got involved with the native Indians people to form agrarian cooperatives with the town's people. When the anti-Church government closed all seminaries,

Father Cristobal gathered displaced seminarians, and started his own seminary; it was suppressed. He formed several seminaries after and when they were all closed, the seminarians conducted classes in private homes. He wrote and preached against armed rebellion, but was falsely accused of promoting revolution. He was finally arrested on 21st May 1927 while en route to celebrate Mass. He was executed on 25th May. He gave away his few remaining possessions to his executioners, gave them absolution, and without trial, he was martyred with Saint Agustin Caloca.

Rita of Cascia, 1386–1457 22nd May

Rita was born in Italy. She was interested in religious life, but at the age of 12, her parents betrothed her to an ill-tempered man. She married him and put up with his abuse for 18 years. After his death and the loss of her twin sons, she entered a monastery and lived there for 40 years.

Despite all her troubles, Rita never lost faith in God. As a woman who suffered abuse, she is the patron saint of abuse victims
