St. Comgall 4th May

Born c. 516 in Co. Antrim. He established a monastery at Bangor c. 555—558 which attracted men like St. Columbanus. After a long and difficult illness he died on the feast of Pentecost 602 or 605.

Blessed John Sullivan 1861-1933

Member of the Jesuit order Born in Dublin, to a middle class family, father was a barrister and C of I, Mother Catholic, he was educated in a church of Ireland School Portora Royal School in Enniskillen and later to Trinity College he was called to the Bar after studying Lincoln's Inn London. In 1896 he was baptised into the Catholic Church, later in 1900 he entered the Jesuit order. He was renowned for his visitation to the Hospice in Harolds Cross for his care for the patients living there. He was appointed to the teaching staff of Clongowes Wood College. He was a man of great prayer. He died 1933, made Venereal 2014 and Blessed in 2017 by Pope Francis

Blessed Edmund Ignatius Rice 1762-1844 May 5th

Edmund came from Callan, Co. Kilkenny. After his young wife's early death, he sold his possessions and dedicated his life to the education of the poor. To advance the work, he gathered other like-minded men who took religious vows together to work for the Catholic education of boys. He is a model of patient and cheerful acceptance of the sufferings God sends, a true lay apostle and a deeply committed religious.
