"Hear me, all of you,
and understand.
Nothing that enters
one from outside can
defile that person;
but the things that come out from within
are what defile."

Mark 7

The 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time continues our journey through the middle of Matthew's Gospel and moves us into a theme that's very prominent in the teaching of Jesus, but also very difficult, and that's a relationship between discipleship, following Jesus, and the mystery of suffering, the mystery of the cross.

Jesus teaches about true discipleship, challenging His followers to focus on inner purity rather than external rituals.

St. Fiacre. August 30th
Was an Irishman who went abroad to a hermitage near Breuil, where he remained until his death c. 670. devotion to the saint was more popular in France than in Ireland. He was renowned for his work in horticulture at this hermitage, and is patron saint of gardeners.

St. Aidan of Lindisfarne August 31st Was of Irish descent and was a monk of Iona. When Oswald, the exiled king of Northumbria who had fled for refuge to Iona returned to his throne in 634, he invited Aidan to come to reconvert his people. Aidan made his headquarters at Lindisfarne. With the aid of the king as interpreter he was very successful in his mission. He died in 651.

St. Gregory the Great, 540 -604 September 3rd A Roman noble who was Prefect of the City before becoming a monk. As Pope he established a pattern for the papacy in years to come. He sent missions to Lombardy, Sardinia and England. Patron of musicians.

St. Dengus MacNissi September 4th Took his name from his mother Ness. It is claimed that Patrick baptised him and taught him the psalms. He chose the district of Connor for his hermitage, but later became bishop of his clan. He died early in the sixth century.
