21st St Anne,

Prayer

God, Almighty Father,
we are your pilgrim Church
journeying towards the Kingdom of heaven.

We live in our homeland,
but as if we were foreigners.

Every foreign place is our home,
yet every native land is foreign to us.

Though we live on earth,
our true citizenship is in heaven.

Do not let us become possessive
of the portion of the world
you have given us as a temporary home.

Help us to keep walking,
together with our migrant brothers and sisters, toward the eternal dwelling you have prepared for us.

Open our eyes and our hearts
so that every encounter with those in need becomes an encounter with Jesus, your Son and our Lord. Amen.

For this year, Pope Francis has chosen "God walks with his people" as the theme. the Holy Father notes that "God not only walks with his people, but also within them, in the sense that he identifies himself with men and women on their journey through history, particularly with the least, the poor and the marginalized". Pope Francis reminds us that the encounter with the migrant, as with anyone in need "is also an encounter with Christ" and invites the Church to unite in prayer "for all those who have had to leave their homes and in search of dignified living conditions".

Saints of the Week

St. Wenceslaus, 28th Sept. 905–925, Prince of Bohemia, killed by his brother.

Patron of brewers.

St. Lawrence Ruiz and his companions. 28th Sept. During the period 1633-1637 these sixteen martyrs, associates of the Order of Preachers, shed their blood out of love for Christ in the city of Nagasaki, Japan.

Ss. Michael, Gabriel and Raphael Archangels. 29th Sept.

St. Jerome St. Jerome 340-420 30th Sept. Born in the mid-4th century in Stridon, Dalmatia, Jerome was a young scholar at Rome. He led a very wild life in his younger days. He was converted to the Christian faith by a companion Bonosus. He later developed a deep interest in asceticism and worked on creating a unified Latin version of the Bible's New Testament. After moving to Bethlehem in 386, he translated sections of the Old Testament from Hebrew into Latin, creating the template for the Roman Catholic Church's Vulgate (that is the Latin Version of the Bible which was in use until the 1960, it was revised over the centuries.) Patron of librarians.

1st October Theresa of Lisieux Marie Francoise Therese Martin was born at Alencon on the 2nd January, 1873 and died at the Carmel in Lisieux on the 30th September 1897. She was declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope John Paul II in 1997. Patron of missions, florists, aviators and France.

2nd October Guardian Angels Catholic tradition has recognised that not only individual people have guardian angels but also homes, cities and states.

3rd Columba Marmion Columba was born in Queen Street, Dublin, Ireland on 1 April 1858, into a large and very religious family; three of his sisters became nuns. His father, William Marmion was from Clane, County Kildare. His mother, Herminie Cordier, was French. Columba was one of the most popular and influential Catholic authors of the 20th century. His books are considered spiritual classics. In August 1909, Marmion was elected abbot 28 September 1909 Abbot Primate of the Benedictine Order A cure from cancer obtained after a woman from St. Cloud, Minnesota, visited his tomb in 1966 was investigated by the Church and recognized as miraculous in 2000, leading to his beatification in that year

4th October St. Francis of Assisi 1181-1226, Abandoned all things for the love of Christ, founded the Friars Minor, and with St. Clare the Poor Clares. For the last two years of his life he suffered the stigmata. The patron saint of ecologists
